IF YOU ENVISION...

"All our dreams come true if we have the courage to pursue them."

Walt Disney

My artistic personality is split between two primary crafts. My first love is photography while my second love is graphic design. With each passing day I find myself falling more and more in love with both of my artistic abilities, but which do I love more?

The answer is quite simple, neither! It is inconceivable to love one more than the other. However as an artist we are often forced to choose one craft to focus on, but for me I like to imagine a future in which I can practice both my abilities without having to sacrifice one of my loves for the other.

IF YOU CONQUER...

"The true sign of intelligence is not knowledge, but imagination."

Albert Einstein

In my mind I know that I will never have to sacrifice one of my loves over the other. I will refuse to do so because that is who I am as an artist. My artist persona spans both the worlds of photography and digital design. Sacrificing one of my arts is like sacrificing half of myself. I am going to allow myself to express myself through photography and design equally. This will be the case for myself because I have the desire and drive to make this vivid dream a tangible reality.

IF YOU BELIEVE...

"Always remember your focus determines your reality."

George Lucas

When I was a young man my family lost my two year old little brother and it hit my family and I so hard. It was a struggle to even wake up everyday for many months. For a while I wondered about it all. I didn't understand how I could be left to live on this earth while my brother's life was cut so short, it's difficult to swallow.

In the wake of my brothers death I came to realize that I couldn't let it hold me back. I couldn't let my brother's death also kill me in a way. I know my brother would want me to keep my head down and focus even in the face of his death.
